Hey Bob,

I think that polymetal would be the best material to use. Unfortunately, they come in 4x8 pieces, so we would have pieces per sign. I think the seem wouldn't really be noticeable if you use black background like the attachment. 4x $400 and 3x12 prices at $320. I think install should be around $450 ($150/hour for the bucket truck). We should fi info about the permit on Monday. I'll let you know as soon as I know something. Thanks.
